

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF GRACE L. BENES
(May 14, 1917 - October 21, 2002)

Without Grace's vision and devotion to the preservation of Chapter One's history, this work would never have come to pass. Her spirit and passion for Orff Schulwerk and the Greater Cleveland Chapter live on.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special thanks to Betty Jane Lahman and Ruth Pollock Hamm. Their spirit, vision, and willingness to aid with this work are cherished gifts. I am indebted to both of them for their assistance and counsel.

Special thanks to BethAnn Hepburn, who has provided invaluable guidance and support with this work. She is an exemplary educator, colleague, and leader. Most importantly, she is a treasured friend and an inspirational human being. I am honored to have her friendship. ☘

Special thanks to the Greater Cleveland Chapter membership. The response to this work from the leadership and the words of encouragement from members both past and present was overwhelming. I am very grateful to all who contributed recollections and support. I am likewise proud to be a member of historic Chapter #1.

Special thanks to Cindi Wobig and the wonderful staff at the AOSA home office for their expertise, help, and for allowing me to spend many afternoons digging through countless files and documents.

Special thanks to my Thesis Supervisor, Dr. Bruce Gleason, and to my Thesis Committee, Dr. Doug Orzolek and Dr. Mary Shamrock. Their expertise during the course of this work and over the past few years has been inspirational.

And special thanks to my friends, family, and professional colleagues who touched my life during this period of its journey. The summers of 2001-2003 at the University of St. Thomas will be remembered and treasured by me always.
